It is an honor for The College of Optometry at Nova Southeastern University to be an academic partner for the First Optometric Meeting of the Americas to be held at the Plaza Mayor Convention and Exhibition Center from May 31 to June 2, 2019. An innovative event in the context of Continuing education in Colombia and of which we will be participants with our experienced teaching faculty.

We are pleased to collaborate with Ophthalmic Media Contents in this academic event and contribute to the growth of Optometry in Colombia and Latin America.

Sincerely,

David S. Loshin, O.D., Ph.D., F.A.A.O
Dean, College of Optometry
